WELCOME TO THE LITTLE NELL

Accommodations

The Little Nell is year-round five-star, five-diamond destination hotel just steps from legendary Aspen Mountain and the property is the only ski-in, ski-out hotel in Aspen. The Little Nell offers 92 guestrooms, including 16 suites and with six specialty suites. Individual configurations and appointments ensure that every experience is unique. Internationally renowned interior designer Holly Hunt's "Aspen Modern" aesthetic ensures a comfortable, residential feel.

What's new: Specialty Suite Remodel – The Little Nell recently completed renovating all six specialty suites with the vision of interior designer, Holly Hunt. The suites now offer elegant and sophisticated "Aspen modern" ambience in addition to their well-known breathtaking views of Aspen Mountain. Whites, grays, blues and natural colors are reflected in custom designed leathers, woods and fabrics. Guests will enjoy everything from Fila D'Oro linens to custom art hand selected by Aspen Skiing Company owner, Paula Crown.

Guest Room Design – Geometric, sculptural and stylish, Hunt's design features cream, blue and chocolate color palettes, textured fabrics, oversize leather chairs, velvet-wrapped banquettes, closet "barn" doors and stone-clad, gas-burning fireplaces. Modern artwork by Caio Fonseca, Robert Kelly and Michael Eastman completes the picture.

The Little Nell's guestrooms include 600-square foot Town View and Mountainside rooms and 660-square foot Premium Town View and Premium Mountainside rooms. Suites include 800-square foot One-Bedroom Junior Suites, with living rooms, dining areas and private balconies with mountainside views. One-bedroom 800-square foot Town Suites have a living/dining area and views of downtown Aspen and the mountains beyond. Two of the Town Suites also have an additional half-bath in the foyer, a split-level floorplan and vaulted A-frame ceilings. Three 1,250-square foot Signature Suites offer individual characteristics, including a master bedroom and lavish bath with a Jacuzzi soaking tub, a grand living room, an intimate dining area, two gas-log fireplaces and private balconies overlooking Aspen Mountain. Executive Suites may be expanded into two-or three-bedroom suites when connecting rooms are available.

Three Signature Suites offer the ultimate luxury and privacy. The 1,450-square foot Little Nell Suite features a spectacular master bedroom, a sun-lit master bathroom with a Jacuzzi soaking tub, an open living area with separate sunroom, two balconies, a separate dining room, a large wet bar, a gas-log fireplace and a half-bath off the living room. The sprawling, 2,000-square foot Pfeifer Suite features two bedrooms, including a master with fireplace and a sumptuous king bed, a second bedroom with two queen beds, a plushly-appointed living room with entertainment area, a full-service wet bar, a six-person dining table and artwork from the hotel's private collection. Two slopeside balconies add outdoor living spaces overlooking The Little Nell ski run. The Pfeifer Suite may be enlarged to a three- or four-bedroom suite, with private entrances for all four rooms. Remarkable in every way, the 2,500-square foot Paepcke Suite features warm mountain colors and materials. The living room has a coffered ceiling, grand fireplace, full-service wet bar, a six-person dining table, an expansive office and a secluded media area. The master bedroom and bath offer every luxury. The suite may be expanded to include two bedrooms.

Restaurants & Bars

Named for silver on the periodic table, element 47 is named after the precious metal that initially put Aspen on the map. The Little Nell's restaurant features Alpine American cuisine. Executive Chef Bryan Moscatello's menu reflects seasonal, well-sourced and hand crafted cuisine with a distinctive, artistic and modern flair. Toast a mining town's heritage with wine selected and served by Carlton McCoy, Wine Director and the world's youngest Master Sommelier. Choose from up to 19,000 bottles – located in the significant and unique wine cellar in the basement of The Little Nell – which is a highlight of the wine program at element 47.

Sleek design by Bentle & Bentle architects, creates a memorable dining ambience, highlighted by a large-scale art installation and glass wine wall -- a subtle nod to a prestigious and award-winning wine list. Indulge in breakfast, lunch or dinner at element 47, and experience world-class, personal service in an approachable and timeless alpine environment. The space is also available for private functions, for the ultimate celebration.

The restaurant is open daily for breakfast, lunch, après-ski, and dinner during the high season. Room service is offered 24 hours a day.

A casual gathering place, The Little Nell's Living Room offers an extensive selection of wine, spirits, beer and cocktails, along with a special bar menu. The Living Room was remodeled in November of 2011 by renowned designer Holly Hunt and offers a warming wood-burning fireplace perfect for gathering. Chair 9, (taking over the Terrace Bar area) just opened last winter (13-14) and features a long copper-top bar and view windows and operates as a convivial club/lounge during the winter months with live music at après everyday of the week. The hotel's portable bar, The Oasis, is a mobile champagne pop-up bar offering Veuve Clicquot and caviar. The bar is located on Aspen Mountain, and its location is shared via Twitter @TheLittleNell.

Adjoining The Little Nell, the slopeside Ajax Tavern dishes up bistro fare, including Poached Rabbit Tagliatelle, as well as signature Ajax Double Cheeseburgers, Gruyere fondue and truffle fries. A Raw Bar and daily specials are available as well. The patio is a happening spot for lunch and après-ski, and outdoor dining year-round.

Fitness Center & Spa

Whether to mellow out or power up, The Little Nell's Fitness Center & Spa offers guests a rewarding and enjoyable experience. Fitness facilities include a fully-equipped exercise room with treadmills, Stairmasters, stationary bikes, weight machines and free weights. A trio of treatment rooms may be reserved for a versatile collection of Calming or Intensive Age-Defying Facials, a well as Deep Tissue, Thai, Hot Stone, Reflexology, Couples and other massage therapies. In-room services may be arranged.

Environmental Vision

In an effort to preserve and protect the natural beauty and integrity of the local surroundings, The Little Nell continually takes an innovative approach to sustainable practices. The Little Nell was awarded the 2011 Colorado Hotel and Lodging Association's Hospitality Green Award for its work on sustainability, taking first place as the most environmentally responsible hotel in the state. The property was recognized for reducing its carbon footprint with energy-efficient lighting, retro-fitting its boilers, installing rooftop solar panels and an energy management system, committing to local food as well as launching its unique guest Eco-Luxe Program. The Nell is the only five star hotel in the US certified to ISO 14001, an internationally- recognized third party environmental management program that ensures best practices.

The innovative Eco-Luxe program allows guests to participate in conservation without compromising luxury. The program includes an organic amenity, fresh Aspen water in a hand-made artisan water pitcher at turndown, complimentary reusable water bottles and the use of one of the hotel's complimentary cruising bikes during spring, summer and fall. A $2 nightly donation, supplemented with an additional $3 nightly donation by the hotel, will go to benefiting the environment in the Roaring Fork Valley.

Meetings & Events

The Little Nell's collection of luxury event spaces and professional catering staff ensure that everything from corporate meetings to weddings will be handled with ease. Hotel venues include The Boardroom, which accommodates 18 guests seated/50 reception-style and offers state-of-the-art presentation capabilities, and the Grand Salon, for meetings for up to 95 people or 200 for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. element 47 restaurant and bar accommodates 120 guests seated/200 reception-style, The Gallery accommodates 50 guests seated/80 reception-style, Table 47 provides private meeting or dining space for up to 12 guests, The Terrace Room accommodates 100 guests seated/150 reception-style, and element 47 Patio accommodates 120 guests seated/250 reception-style.
